

The Islander's Guesthouse

Location

The guesthouse is situated next to the Anse Kerlan Beach and is 2 km from the Praslin Domestic airport. It is opposite to an old planter's house, which is protected as a Seychelles National Monument.

General Presentation

There is a total of 4 bungalows which are divided into 2 units. There is one main restaurant 'Capricorn' having a view onto the beach. The establishment has a garden surrounding its bungalows.

Room Types

The Standard Apartment

4 apartments with an en-suite bedroom, a bathroom with a shower cubicle, bidet and bathtub, an open plan lounge with a dining area and fully equipped kitchen and a terrace.

The Superior Apartment

2 apartments with an en-suite bedroom, a bathroom with a shower, bidet, twin hand basin and bathtub, an open plan lounge with a dining area and fully equipped kitchen and a terrace.

The Family Apartment

2 apartments with 2 bedrooms, a bathroom with a bathtub, shower and bidet, open plan lounge with a dining area and fully equipped kitchen.

Room Amenities

- Ceiling fan
- Air – Condition (usage is charged)
- Safe Deposit Box
- Hair dryer

Food & Beverage

The main restaurant is the 'Capricorn' is facing the beach, offering seafood and Creole dishes. It is closed every Sunday after breakfast. Clients on halfboard or other can be brought with a free transfer to a nearby restaurant.

Activity and Wellness

Complimentary

- Beach beds

With Supplement

- Golf
- Walking trials
- iSurf internet access cards

Note:

- The 'Capricorn' restaurant is closed every year between 20th December and 3rd January; with this the guesthouse only offers Self-Catering accommodation